North Sea CCS & Hydrogen Summit

Sponsorship opportunities

1 – 2 June 2026

Sheraton Grand Hotel, Edinburgh

The OEUK North Sea CCS & Hydrogen Summit will take place 1 – 2 June 2026 at the Sheraton Grant Hotel, Edinburgh.

Offshore Energies UK invites you to the North Sea CCS and Hydrogen Summit 2026, bringing together experts from across the region as carbon capture and storage (CCS), and hydrogen move from concept to large scale deployment.

With early projects reaching Final Investment Decision across the UK, Norway, Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium, France, and Denmark, this summit will highlight the progress driving the North Sea's energy transition.

Join industry leaders, innovators, regulators, and investors as we explore how to build an interconnected North Sea CCS and hydrogen network, leveraging decades of oil and gas expertise to lay the foundations for a successful energy transition.

Why Attend?

- Presentations from active projects that have reached Final Investment Decision
- Gain insights from investors, legal firms, and insurers as new products and services emerge to support these new sectors
- Understand perspectives from regulators across the North Sea region
- An innovation showcase featuring cutting-edge technologies

Agenda:

Interconnected North Sea CCS and Hydrogen networks as catalysers of net zero

Connecting supply of North Sea carbon storage and hydrogen production with demand from across Europe

The evolving business case for CCS and hydrogen in the North Sea

Carbon pricing, technology cost reductions and revenue-accelerating policies

De-risking mechanisms and the transition to self-sustaining markets

Cross-chain risk management across transport and storage

Pioneering projects reaching Final Investment Decision

Lessons learned from projects in execution

One basin, harmonised standards

Aligning standards to accelerate the development of interoperable infrastructure

Building resilient supply chains

Evolving CCS and hydrogen supply chain landscape and opportunities for regional coordination

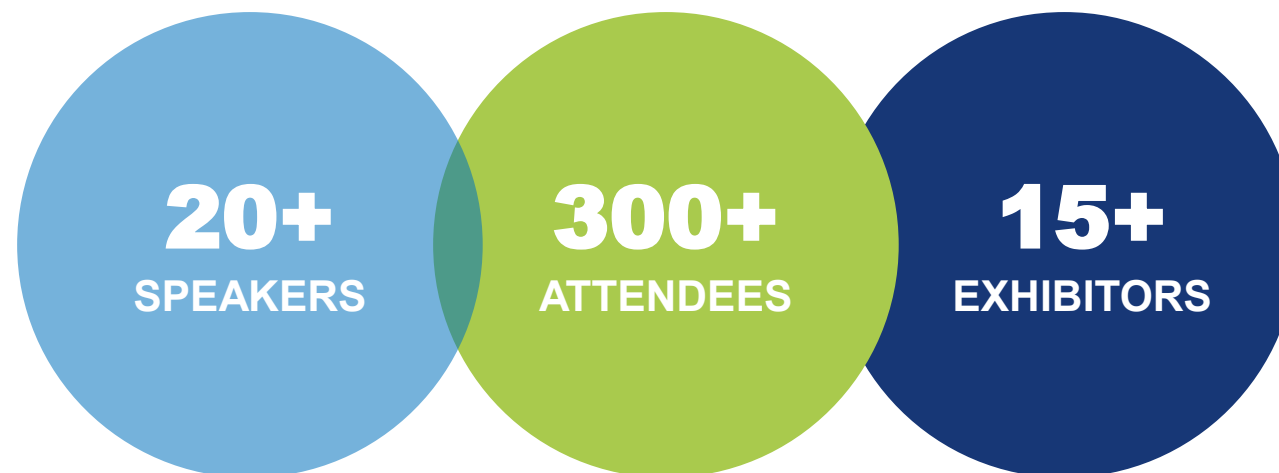

UK, Norway and Netherlands Leadership Panel

Industry and government leaders to discuss infrastructure synergies to accelerate deployment
